

Information for Attendees and Buyers

One Ring Celebration 2007 Art Show

The ORC Art Show is open daily during regular exhibit hours Friday and Saturday. The silent auction closes at the end of regular exhibit hours on Saturday. Items won may be purchased and picked up Sunday. Most pieces in the show are part of the silent auction and may be bid on.

General Art Show Rules for Attendees and Buyers

1. Bidder numbers are required to bid or purchase on any artwork on display. You must first register to get your bidder number at the front desk in the Art Show room.
2. All items eligible for sale in the art show have a bid sheet attached. If a piece is marked "Not For Sale", you are not allowed to bid on it. Included on this sheet are:
  - a. Artist name and artwork name.
  - b. The artwork medium and whether or not it is a print.
  - c. The Minimum Bid (The lowest bid the artist will accept)
  - d. Space to record your bid. When you bid on an item, PRINT your name, bidder number, and bid on the first space available on that item's bid sheet.
  - e. The Quick Sale Price. If the item has no previous bids, you may buy the item outright at this price. Please ask an Art Show staff member for assistance in purchasing an item at the Quick Sale Price. Not all artwork has a quick sale price listed.
3. Bidding can be done anytime during the Art Show beginning Friday through Saturday. All written bids close at the end of regular exhibit hours on Saturday.
4. The live auction will take place on Sunday. All items with 5 or more bids will go to the live auction Sunday. If no one outbids the last bidder on the written bid sheet, that bidder is the buyer.
5. Please DO NOT BID IF YOU DO NOT INTEND TO HONOR YOUR BID! Your written bid is the same as a contract agreeing to buy that item at that price.
6. On Sunday, pieces that remain unsold will be available for the Minimum Bid Price if the artist allows close out sales. All others are considered sold to the highest bidder on the sheet and will be marked as sold.
7. You may claim purchased art anytime during the show, but all purchases must be claimed by the end of exhibit hours on Sunday. Any buyers who do not collect art they have bid on will have collections procedures instituted against them after the show.
8. No food, drink, or smoking allowed in the Art Show. Cameras are not allowed in the Art Show without special permission.
