If you plan to bring your own freestanding display, or if you have 3-D art that requires floor space, you must let us know by one month out so that we may allocate exhibition space for your artwork. The earlier you can notify the Art Show Director of your special space requirements the better we can accommodate you. A limited number of wall panels are available for large works. We will attempt to honor all request for bays and wall panels on a space available basis, but late entries may be given other panel configurations.
